ITALY.

FLORENCE, Dec. 22.—In to-day's sitting of the Chamber of Deputies, the Bill authorising the acceptance of the Marcian Railwayby Signor Vacchelli, was adopted. Signor Vacchelli, Signor Tenerelli, Signor Cavallotti, Signor Cairoli, Signor Ferrari, and others, opposed the Bill, which was finally adopted by 220 votes against 18.

SPAIN.

MADRID, Dec. 22.—The Duke d'Aosta will proclaim Amadeus on the 27th, and will remain at Aranjuez until the 1st of January, when he will proceed to Madrid.

The Gaceta to-day publishes a protest from Don Carlos against the election of the Duke d'Aosta, as well as the protest signed by Charles Ahem and others by King Victor Emmanuel in Don Carlos.

MADRID, Dec. 22.—The discussion on the proposition of Senor Rivero, on the dissolution of the Cortes, continues.

Senor Olozaga replied to a question put by Senor Cassola, relative to illegal consultation, by the Minister of Justice of Nobeli of the Sandoz who had been opposed.

TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 17.—The capitulation was by the Porte to Russia, to act against the Black Sea fleet, is becoming more important. Upwards of 40 ships have already been dispatched, and other detachments will soon follow.

GREECE.

ATHENS, Dec. 21.—The Chambers were opened to-day by Representatives. There was no speech from the Throne.

THE ECLIPSE EXPEDITION.

Mr. Lockyer, in charge of the Eclipse expedition, publicly telegraphing on Tuesday, said it promises well as regards the Public. Pictures in the Exhibition, which will be open to the public every morning. Observations are to be made in the garden of the Benedictine Monastery. A strong party under Professor Rayet, are going up Etna. Mr. Lockyer's party, at Mt. Sicilia, the elements were most unfavourable. The preparations are complete. The whole expedition is laid in a store of 100 days provisions, and 1,000 rounds. The Admiral is here from Malta, and the ship may be saved if the weather holds good. The party will probably leave Sicily in an hour-and-an-hour.

AMERICA.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The President today sent to the Senate General Schenck's nomination as United States Minister to the Court of St. James.

THE WAR.

(SUPPLEMENT TO THE WESTERN MAIL)

LILLE, Dec. 22, AFTERNOON.—The report of General Faidherbe having engaged the enemy yesterday was premature, but the issue of General Bourbaki's battle is still undecided. The Prussians are concentrated in the Ardennes. The Prussian outposts are in that city, and it is the opinion of public that a battle is now being fought.

There is no fresh news from the South.

Tours, Dec. 22.—The Minister of War-General commanding the Army of the North has informed us Prefect that some corps expeditions are to assist Faidherbe, and Bourbaki's Army of the Loire, Dec. 22.—EVENING.—The Chamber of the Confederation has addressed a protest to the Sixth German representatives at Foreign Office, Berlin, Dec. 19th, inst. In view the protest to make creation to the Report reason French officers from captivity to breaking the oath of the Prussian Government sanction the violation of faith by giving opportunity to those who contemplate, and to the army there to revolter pay to rights men who have their parole signed. By this course the Prussian Government and all the Powers carrying order to consider the violation of faith by the chief of public. The German Government have to be responsible for the consequences of the violation of capitulation and be how direct or indirect the French officers who have been taken prisoners and also what amount of compliance with the French Government. The Chamber of the Confederation, while reserving to itself to make known the decisions of the German Government on the question at a future time, begins to call on the Powers to use their influence to exert a proper judgment may be passed on any case which may be made by those now in power in France, and to adopt the preliminary measures that will have to be taken.
